SECTION A – DISCLOSURE ON MALAYSIAN CODE ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Disclosures in this section are pursuant to Paragraph 15.25 of Bursa Malaysia Listing Requirements.

Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.1

The board should set the company's strategic aims, ensure that the necessary resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives and review management performance. The board should set the company's values and standards, and ensure that its obligations to its shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board has overall responsibility for the strategic direction of the Group. The Board meets regularly to review corporate strategies, operations and performance of business units within the Group. All Board members bring their independent judgement to bear on issues of strategy, performance, resources and standards of conduct. The roles and responsibilities of the Board as set out in the Board Charter are clear and distinct from that of the Managing Director ("MD"). The matters reserved for the deliberation and collective decision of the Board to ensure the direction and control of the Group's businesses are listed in the Board Charter which is available on the corporate website: www.wegmans.com.my. The Board has oversight on matters delegated to the Management whereby updates are periodically reported. All Board authority conferred on Management is delegated through the MD so that the authority and accountability of management is considered to be the authority and accountability of the MD so far as the Board is concerned. Other than the MD, the Board also facilitates its principal responsibilities which include reviewing and adopting a strategic plan, overseeing the conduct of business, risk management, succession planning, developing and implementing investor relations and reviewing internal controls. Towards this, the Board has delegated specific responsibilities to the following Board committees:- <ul style="list-style-type: none">i. Audit and Risk Management Committee ("ARMC")ii. Nominating Committee ("NC")iii. Remuneration Committee ("RC") The powers delegated to the Board Committees are set out in the Terms of Reference ("ToR") of each of the Committees as approved by the Board and set out in the Board Charter.

	The Board Committees review matters within their ToRs and make recommendations to the Board for approval. The Board is kept apprised of the activities of the Board Committees through circulation meeting minutes of the Board Committees and updated on meeting deliberations and outcomes by the respective chairmen and/or chairpersons of the Board Committees at meetings. The ultimate responsibility for the final decision on the recommendations lies with the entire Board.

Practice 1.2

A Chairman of the board who is responsible for instilling good corporate governance practices, leadership and effectiveness of the board is appointed.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Chairman of the Board holds a Non-Executive position and is primarily responsible for matters pertaining to the Board and the overall conduct of the Group. He is committed to good corporate governance practices and to lead the Board towards a high performing culture. The Chairman will act as facilitator at meetings of the Board and ensure that no Board member, whether Executive or Non-Executive, dominates the discussion, and that appropriate discussion takes place and that the relevant opinions among the members of the Board are forthcoming. Together with the other Non-Executive and Independent Directors, he leads the discussion on the strategies and policies recommended by the Management. He also chairs the meetings of the Board and the shareholders.

Practice 1.3

The positions of Chairman and CEO are held by different individuals.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The positions of Chairman and MD are held by two different individuals. The distinct and separate roles of the Chairman and MD, with a clear division of responsibilities, ensure a balance of power and authority, such that no one individual has unfettered powers of decision-making. The MD oversees the day-to-day management and running of the Group and the implementation of the Board’s decisions and policies. The key roles and accountabilities of the Chairman and MD are set out in the Board Charter which is available on the corporate website: www.wegmans.com.my.

	3. Mr Chan Wan Seong has also offered valuable insight and knowledge to each of the Board Committees he is involved in the Company since appointed to the Board. He voiced his concern as necessary and shown impartiality in his judgement and conduct. 4. In the assessment of the Company, the current setup of Board Committees with one Chairman and two members is effective and facilitates fast decision-making processes. It avoids deadlock in board decision and allows faster implementation of decision. In summary, the Company understands the importance of compliance with this Practice. However, the Company is of the view that the current Board Committees are robust (i.e. meeting the objective of the respective Board Committees) and efficient. Adding or reducing number of directors towards complying of this practice may not necessarily bring positive results. The Board will continuously review this practice and consider the appropriateness of compliance in the future.
	Please provide an alternative practice and explain how the alternative practice meets the intended outcome.

Practice 1.6

Directors receive meeting materials, which are complete and accurate within a reasonable period prior to the meeting. Upon conclusion of the meeting, the minutes are circulated in a timely manner.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Directors have individual and independent access to the advice and dedicated support services of the Company Secretaries as well as to all information within the Group. Senior Management provides Directors with the required information or updates either personally or at meetings. All Directors are furnished with a comprehensive Board paper including the meeting agenda usually one (1) week before each Board meeting. Sufficient time is given to enable the Directors to solicit further explanations and/or information, where necessary, so that deliberations at the meeting are focused and constructive. The Board papers includes, amongst others, financial results and forecasts, status of major projects (if any), minutes of meetings of the Board and of the ARMC and other major operational, financial, compliance and legal issues. In addition, there is a schedule of matters reserved specifically for the Board's decision. In the intervals between Board meetings, for exceptional matters requiring urgent Board decisions, approvals will be obtained via circular resolutions which are supported with information necessary for an informed decision. Individual Directors may also obtain independent professional or other advice in furtherance of their duties at the Company's expense on specific issues, subject to approval by the Chairman or the Board, depending on the quantum of the fees involved. Wherever necessary, consultants and experts will be invited to brief the Board on their areas of expertise or their reports.

Intended Outcome

There is demarcation of responsibilities between the board, board committees and management.

There is clarity in the authority of the board, its committees and individual directors.

Practice 2.1

The board has a board charter which is periodically reviewed and published on the company's website. The board charter clearly identifies–

- the respective roles and responsibilities of the board, board committees, individual directors and management; and
- issues and decisions reserved for the board.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board Charter was adopted by the Board on 29 May 2017. Any subsequent amendment to the Board Charter can only be approved by the Board. Apart from setting out the roles and responsibilities, authorities, procedures, evaluations and structures of the Board and Board Committees, the Board Charter also outlines the membership guidelines, procedures for Board Meetings, Directors' remuneration, Board and member assessment and shareholders' communication. The Board Charter would be periodically reviewed and updated in accordance with the needs of the Company and any new regulations that may have an impact on the discharge of the Board's responsibilities. The Board Charter was last reviewed on 27 February 2024 and is available on the corporate website: www.wegmans.com.my.

Intended Outcome

The board is committed to promoting good business conduct and maintaining a healthy corporate culture that engenders integrity, transparency and fairness.

The board, management, employees and other stakeholders are clear on what is considered acceptable behaviour and practice in the company.

Practice 3.1

The board establishes a Code of Conduct and Ethics for the company, and together with management implements its policies and procedures, which include managing conflicts of interest, preventing the abuse of power, corruption, insider trading and money laundering.

The Code of Conduct and Ethics is published on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board is committed to maintain a corporate culture which engenders ethical conduct. A Code of Ethics is formalised through the Company’s Code of Conduct, which summarises what the Company must endeavour to do proactively in order to increase corporate value, and which describes the areas in daily activities that require caution in order to minimise any risks that may occur. The Code of Ethics will be reviewed periodically. The Code of Ethics is set out in the Board Charter and is available on the corporate website: www.wegmans.com.my.

The company addresses sustainability risks and opportunities in an integrated and strategic manner to support its long-term strategy and success.

Practice 4.1

The board together with management takes responsibility for the governance of sustainability in the company including setting the company's sustainability strategies, priorities and targets.

The board takes into account sustainability considerations when exercising its duties including among others the development and implementation of company strategies, business plans, major plans of action and risk management.

Strategic management of material sustainability matters should be driven by senior management.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	Wegmans acknowledges the importance of conducting business in an ethical, socially responsible and environmentally friendly manner for continuing success and sustainable growth. Therefore, our Group focuses on sustainability principles when formulating and implementing business strategies to achieve its goals. The core of sustainability of our business is founded on ethical business practices and effective governance. Our Group's commitment towards management of material sustainability matters is focused and continuously improved by emphasising in the three (3) principal aspects namely Economic, Environment and Social. Our Group has an Enterprise Risk Management Committee ("ERMC"), comprising key persons from all departments of the Group, to provide risk management support for the Group as a whole. With the advent of sustainability reporting, the ERMC takes on the additional oversight role of monitoring sustainability activities, where the relevant material sustainability matters are identified by the ERMC in tandem with the normal risk management initiatives. The ERMC report to the ARMC on the sustainability developments at least on an annual basis.

Practice 4.5- Step Up

The board identifies a designated person within management, to provide dedicated focus to manage sustainability strategically, including the integration of sustainability considerations in the operations of the company.

Note: The explanation on adoption of this practice should include a brief description of the responsibilities of the designated person and actions or measures undertaken pursuant to the role in the financial year.

Application	:	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.1

The Nomination Committee should ensure that the composition of the board is refreshed periodically. The tenure of each director should be reviewed by the Nomination Committee and annual re-election of a director should be contingent on satisfactory evaluation of the director's performance and contribution to the board.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The NC was established on 29 May 2017 with clearly defined ToR, and comprises three (3) Non-Executive Directors of whom all are Independent Directors. The NC shall meet as and when required upon request by the members, provided that the NC shall meet at least once a year. The ToR of the NC is set out in the Board Charter and is available on the corporate website: www.wegmans.com.my. The NC will review the tenure and performance of each director, where annual re-election of a director would be contingent on satisfactory evaluation of the director's performance and contribution to the Board. The NC's key responsibilities are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Formulated the nomination, selection and succession policies for the members of the Board and Senior Management;• Made recommendations to the Board on re-election/reappointment of Directors to the Board at Annual General Meeting ("AGM");• Review the required mix of skills, experience and other qualities of the Board as well as boardroom diversity;• Review the term of office and performance of the ARMC and each of its members and other Board Committees established by the Board annually;• Establish a set of quantitative and qualitative performance criteria to evaluate the performance of each member of the Board, and reviewing the performance of the members of the Board;• Assess the independence of Independent Directors annually; as well as• Review the Directors' continuing education programmes.

Practice 5.2

At least half of the board comprises independent directors. For Large Companies, the board comprises a majority independent directors.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board comprises a majority of Independent Directors, representing 60% of the Board. In addition, the Company also complies with the Main Market Listing Requirements ("Listing Requirements") of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad ("Bursa Securities") for Independent Non-Executive Directors to make up at least one-third (1/3) of the Board membership. This fairly reflects the investment by minority shareholders through Independent Directors. The Board comprises members from various professions with individual personalised quality, expertise, skills and relevant market and industry knowledge and ensures at all times that necessary financial and human resources are in place for the Company to meet its strategic objectives. With the age of the Directors ranging from 52 to 70, the Board believes that this creates an environment where each generation brings different skills, experience and talents to the Board. The Board will continue to monitor and review the Board size and composition as may be needed.

Practice 5.3

The tenure of an independent director does not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an independent director may continue to serve on the board as a non-independent director.

If the board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine years, it should provide justification and seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	Currently, none of the Independent Directors has reached nine (9) years of service since their appointment as Directors. The Board has implemented a nine-year policy for Independent Non-Executive Directors. Upon completion of the nine (9) years, an Independent Director may continue to serve on the Board subject to the Director’s re-designation as a Non-Independent Director. In the event such Director was to be retained as an Independent Director, the Board would have to justify in the notice convening the AGM and seek shareholders’ approval the retention of such Independent Director through a two-tier voting process at every AGM.

Practice 5.4 - Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years without further extension.

Note: To qualify for adoption of this Step Up practice, a listed issuer must have a formal policy which limits the tenure of an independent director to nine years without further extension i.e. shareholders' approval to retain the director as an independent director beyond nine years.

Application	:	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 5.5

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Directors appointed should be able to devote the required time to serve the board effectively. The board should consider the existing board positions held by a director, including on boards of non-listed companies. Any appointment that may cast doubt on the integrity and governance of the company should be avoided.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	Appointment of Board and Senior Management is based on objective criteria, merit and besides gender diversity, due regard is placed for diversity in skills, experience, age and cultural background. Prior to the acceptance of new Board appointment(s) in other public listed companies (“PLC”), the Directors are to notify the Chairman and/or the Company Secretaries in writing which includes an indication of time that will be spent on the new appointment. To ensure the Directors have the time to focus and fulfill their roles and responsibilities effectively, a criteria as agreed by the Board is that they must not hold directorships at more than 5 PLCs as prescribed in Paragraph 15.06 of Listing Requirements of Bursa Securities. Currently, none of the Directors has exceeded the limit.

Practice 5.6

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

If the selection of candidates was based on recommendations made by existing directors, management or major shareholders, the Nominating Committee should explain why these source(s) suffice and other sources were not used.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The screening and evaluation process for potential candidates to be nominated as Directors are delegated to the NC. The process involves the NC's consideration and submission to the Board of its recommendation of suitable candidates from either the Management, the existing Board member(s) or major shareholder(s) for the proposed appointment as Directors of the Company. The NC may also obtain and rely upon independent sources such as a directors' registry, open advertisement or use of independent search firms in furtherance of their duties at the Company's expense, subject to approval by the Chairman or the Board, depending on the quantum of the fees involved. If the selection of candidates was solely based on the recommendations made by the Management, the existing Board member(s) or major shareholder(s), the NC will explain why other sources were not used. The criteria to be used in the appointment process to the Board of Directors largely focuses on ensuring a good mix of skills, experience and strength in the qualities that are relevant for the Board to discharge its responsibilities in an effective and competent manner. The other factors considered by the NC in its review include the candidates' ability to spend sufficient time and commitment on the Company's matters, the ability to satisfy the test of independence taking into account the candidate's character, integrity and professionalism, as well as having a balanced mix of age and diversity of Directors on the Board. The Board diversity factor as reviewed by the NC includes experience, skills, competence, race, gender, culture and nationality, to facilitate optimal decision-making by harnessing different insights and perspectives. The shortlisted candidates who are not known to the existing Board members, will be interviewed by the NC and thereafter, will met with the Board of Directors for endorsement of appointment.

The board discloses in its annual report the company's policy on gender diversity for the board and senior management.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board is supportive of the gender boardroom diversity recommended by the Code. The Board currently has 20% female representation, i.e. one (1) female director who is the Independent Non-Executive Director and was in line with Paragraph 15.02(1)(b) of the Listing Requirements of Bursa Securities. The Board, through the NC will continuously review the proportion of the female and male Board members during the annual assessment of the Directors' performance taking into consideration the appropriate skills, experience and characteristics required by the members of the Board, in the context of the needs of the Company. The Board shall be responsible for recommending its members for election by the Shareholders.

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 6.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out its outcome, actions taken and how it has or will influence board composition.

For Large Companies, the board engages an independent expert at least every three years, to facilitate objective and candid board evaluation.

Note: For a Large Company to qualify for adoption of this practice, it must undertake annual board evaluation and engage an independent expert at least every three years to facilitate the evaluation.
Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	The Board's effectiveness will be assessed in the following key areas of composition, administration and process, accountability and responsibility, Board conduct, communication and relationship with Management, performance of the Chairman and MD, the time commitment in discharging their role and responsibilities through attendance at their respective meetings as well as the application of good governance principles to create sustainable shareholder's value. The Board will undertake an annual assessment of Independent Directors as to justify whether they continue to bring independent and objective judgement to board deliberations. Peer and self-assessment will be carried out by the Directors once every year. The results, in particular the key strengths and weaknesses identified from the evaluation, will be shared with the Board to allow enhancements to be undertaken. The Company Secretaries will facilitate the NC in carrying out the annual assessment exercise. Given the evaluation and annual assessment exercise will be extensively conducted via the ARMC evaluation questionnaire, Independent Directors' evaluation form, board and board committees evaluation form, board members' self and peer evaluation form, directors' evaluation form. Based on the annual assessment conducted, the NC was satisfied that the existing Board composition and each Director possess requisite competence and capability to serve on the Board. Save for the NC members who are also members of the Board and have abstained from assessing their own individual performance as Director of the Company, each of the NC members view that all the Directors have good personal attributes and possess sufficient experience and knowledge in various fields that are vital to the Company's industry.

	As for the Board evaluation, the NC agreed that all the Directors have discharged their stewardship duties and responsibilities towards the Company as a Director effectively.

Intended Outcome

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company's desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company's long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 7.1

The board has remuneration policies and procedures to determine the remuneration of directors and senior management, which takes into account the demands, complexities and performance of the company as well as skills and experience required. The remuneration policies and practices should appropriately reflect the different roles and responsibilities of non-executive directors, executive directors and senior management. The policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and made available on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The objective of the Group's remuneration policy is to attract and retain the Directors and Senior Management to lead and control the Group effectively. In the case of Executive Directors and Senior Management, the components of the remuneration package are linked to corporate and individual performance. For Non-Executive Directors, the level of remuneration is reflective of their experience and level of responsibilities. The remuneration policy is set out in the Board Charter and is available on the corporate website: www.wegmans.com.my. The remuneration payable to Non-Executive Directors is in respect of Directors' fees paid to Independent Non-Executive Directors only and also includes fees for Chairman/Chairperson and members of the Board Committees, who are Independent Directors.

Practice 7.2

The board has a Remuneration Committee to implement its policies and procedures on remuneration including reviewing and recommending matters relating to the remuneration of board and senior management.

The Committee has written Terms of Reference which deals with its authority and duties and these Terms are disclosed on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The RC was established on 29 May 2017 with clearly defined ToR and comprises three (3) Non-Executive Directors of whom all are Independent Directors. It is chaired by an Independent Non-Executive Director. The ToR of the RC is set out in the Board Charter and is available on the corporate website: www.wegmans.com.my. The RC is responsible for setting and reviewing policies and procedures on matters relating to the remuneration of the Board and Senior Management. The RC evaluates the remuneration packages of Senior Management and recommends for the Board's approval, the framework of executive remuneration of the Executive Director's remuneration package. To uphold the corporate governance and public confidence in the Company, Executive Directors should not be involved in deciding their own remuneration. In addition, Directors who are shareholders should abstain from voting at general meetings to approve their fees. Non-Executive Directors' fees are determined by the Board as a whole with the Director concerned abstaining from deliberations and voting on decisions in respect of his/her fee.

Intended Outcome

There is an effective and independent Audit Committee.

The board is able to objectively review the Audit Committee's findings and recommendations.
The company's financial statement is a reliable source of information.

Practice 9.1

The Chairman of the Audit Committee is not the Chairman of the board.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The positions of Chairperson of the ARMC and the Board are held by two (2) different individuals. Hence, the objectivity of the Board's review of the ARMC's findings and recommendations will be preserved. The Board is of the view that the chairperson of the ARMC has performed the duties as defined and his judgment was not impaired as he is sufficiently independent from Management in leading the discussion on the matters being deliberated and findings as well as recommendations made by the ARMC objectively in the Board meetings.

Practice 9.3

The Audit Committee has policies and procedures to assess the suitability, objectivity and independence of the external auditor to safeguard the quality and reliability of audited financial statements.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The ARMC maintains a transparent and professional relationship with the external auditors of the Company. The external auditors fill an essential role by enhancing the reliability of the Company's annual audited financial statements and giving assurance to stakeholders of the reliability of the annual audited financial statements. The external auditors have an obligation to bring any significant defects in the Company's system of control and compliance to the attention of the Management; and if necessary, to the ARMC and the Board. The ARMC is empowered by the Board to review any matters concerning the appointment and re-appointment, resignations or dismissals of external auditors and review and evaluate factors relating to the independence of the external auditors. The terms of engagement for services provided by the external auditors are reviewed by the ARMC prior to submission to the Board for approval. Feedback based on the assessment areas is obtained from the ARMC, the Executive Director, the internal auditors and Senior Management and the Heads of Department ("HoD"). The ARMC undertakes an annual assessment of the suitability and independence of the external auditors in accordance with the independence criteria set out by the International Federation of Accountants and the Malaysian Institute of Accountants ("MIA"). Only non-audit services which are able to provide clear efficiencies and value-added benefits to the Group and do not impede the external auditors' audit works will be accepted by the ARMC. On the other hand, the ARMC also seeks written assurance from the external auditors, confirming that they are, and have been, independent throughout the conduct of the audit engagement with the Company in accordance with the independence criteria set out by the MIA. The external auditors provide such declaration in their annual audit plan presented to the ARMC prior to the commencement of audit for a particular financial year. Further details on the activities undertaken by the ARMC are set out in the ARMC Report of the Annual Report on pages 58 to 61.

Practice 9.4 - Step Up

The Audit Committee should comprise solely of Independent Directors.

Application	:	Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:	The ARMC comprises three (3) Non-Executive Directors of whom all are Independent Directors. On the composition, please refer to the Corporate Information of the Annual Report on page 2. The Board is of the view that the ARMC is able to assist the Board in reviewing and scrutinising the information in terms of accuracy, adequacy and completeness for disclosure to ensure reliability and compliance with applicable financial reporting standards.

Intended Outcome

There is an effective and independent Audit Committee.

The board is able to objectively review the Audit Committee's findings and recommendations.
The company's financial statement is a reliable source of information.

Practice 9.5

Collectively, the Audit Committee should possess a wide range of necessary skills to discharge its duties. All members should be financially literate, competent and are able to understand matters under the purview of the Audit Committee including the financial reporting process.

All members of the Audit Committee should undertake continuous professional development to keep themselves abreast of relevant developments in accounting and auditing standards, practices and rules.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The ARMC chairperson, Faam Chang Pooh together with all ARMC members, reviewed the Company's financial statements and annual audited financial statements in the presence of external auditors, prior to recommending them for the Board's approval and issuance to stakeholders. To assist the Board in reviewing and scrutinising the information in terms of accuracy, adequacy and completeness for disclosure to ensure reliability and compliance with applicable financial reporting standards, all the ARMC members will undertake continuous professional development to keep abreast of relevant developments in accounting and auditing standards, practices and rules. The Board, through the recommendation of the NC and with the exception of the Directors who are also ARMC members is generally satisfied that all the ARMC members are financially literate, competent and have sufficient understanding of the Company's business. Further details on the external programs attended by the ARMC are set out in the CG Overview Statement of the Annual Report on pages 42 to 43.

Practice 10.1

The board should establish an effective risk management and internal control framework.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board is updated on the Group's internal controls system which encompasses risk management practices as well as financial, operational and compliance controls on a quarterly basis. On-going reviews are performed throughout the year on a quarterly basis to identify, evaluate, monitor and manage significant risks affecting the business and ensure that adequate and effective controls are in place. Such continuous review processes are conducted by the Company's Management Team as well as the Group's independent and sufficiently resourced internal audit function. The findings of the internal audit function are regularly reported to the ARMC. Details of the main features of the Company's risk management and internal controls framework are further elaborated in the ARMC Report and the Statement on Risk Management and Internal Control of the Annual Report on pages 58 to 61 and pages 62 to 65 respectively.

Practice 10.3 - Step Up

The board establishes a Risk Management Committee, which comprises a majority of independent directors, to oversee the company's risk management framework and policies.

Application	:	Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice	:	The ARMC comprises three (3) Non-Executive Directors of whom all are Independent Directors. The ARMC is responsible to review the effectiveness of the processes. The ARMC will assist the Board in implementing and overseeing the risk management framework of the Group and reviewing the risk management policies formulated by Management and to make relevant recommendations to the Board for approval.

Intended Outcome

Companies have an effective governance, risk management and internal control framework and stakeholders are able to assess the effectiveness of such a framework.

Practice 11.1

The Audit Committee should ensure that the internal audit function is effective and able to function independently.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board of Directors has always placed significant emphasis on sound internal controls which are necessary to safeguard the Group's assets and shareholders' investment. To this end, the Board affirms its overall responsibility to the ARMC for the Group's internal controls system which encompasses risk management practices as well as financial, operational and compliance controls. However, it should be noted that such system, by its nature, manages but not eliminates risks and therefore can provide only reasonable and not absolute assurance against material misstatement, loss or fraud. On-going reviews will be performed by ARMC throughout the year to identify, evaluate, monitor and manage significant risks affecting the business and ensure that adequate and effective controls are in place. The Company also outsources the internal audit function to an independent assurance provider ("Internal Auditors") to provide an independent appraisal over the system of internal control of the Group to the ARMC.

- whether internal audit personnel are free from any relationships or conflicts of interest, which could impair their objectivity and independence;
- the number of resources in the internal audit department;
- name and qualification of the person responsible for internal audit; and
- whether the internal audit function is carried out in accordance with a recognised framework.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Company has outsourced the internal audit function to Atrium Advisory PLT effective from 1 November 2023, following Tricor Axcelasia Sdn. Bhd.'s resignation as internal auditor. The internal auditors carry out the internal audit reviews independently in accordance with a recognised framework. Prior to the commencement of internal audit assignments, the internal auditors also seeks written assurance from those involved, confirming that they do not have any relationships or conflict of interest with the Company, which could impair their independence and objectivity throughout the conduct of the audit engagement. The internal auditors provide such declaration in their annual audit plan presented to the ARMC prior to the commencement of internal audit assignment for the ensuing year. Premised on such declaration, feedback from the Management Team as well as performance assessment conducted by the ARMC, the ARMC will consider whether to continuously outsource the internal audit function to internal auditors in providing an independent appraisal on the adequacy, efficiency and effectiveness of the Group's internal control system.

Practice 13.4

The Chairman of the board should ensure that general meetings support meaningful engagement between the board, senior management and shareholders. The engagement should be interactive and include robust discussion on among others the company's financial and non-financial performance as well as the company's long-term strategies. Shareholders should also be provided with sufficient opportunity to pose questions during the general meeting and all the questions should receive a meaningful response.

Note: The explanation of adoption of this practice should include a discussion on measures undertaken to ensure the general meeting is interactive, shareholders are provided with sufficient opportunity to pose questions and the questions are responded to.
Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The AGM represents the principal forum for dialogue and interaction with shareholders. At every AGM, the Board sets out the progress and performance of the Group since the last meeting held. Shareholders are encouraged to participate in the subsequent Question & Answer ("Q&A") session wherein the Directors, Company Secretaries, HoD as well as the Group's external auditors are available to respond to the queries raised. In the event that an answer cannot be readily given at the meeting, the Chairman will undertake to provide a written reply to the shareholder. Each item of special business included in the notice of meeting will be accompanied by a full explanation on the effects of a proposed resolution.
